

The 2019 Toronto International Photography Festival Awards Ceremony will be held on December 8 in Art Gallery of Ontario

Honorary sponsorship plan

The International Photographers Federation (IPF) is a global non-profit organization with its headquarters in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. This federation has attracted many photographers, landscape photographers, wildlife photographers, portrait photographers, humanistic photographers, professional photographers, commercial photographers, wedding photographers, star photographers, travel photographers, photography theorists, photography educators, etc. Up to now, IPF has 65 photography member organizations in five continents and 30,000 outstanding individual photographers worldwide.

Toronto International Photography Festival (TIPF) has founded by IPF and is held every two years. The successful hosting of TIPF in 2015 and 2017 has made TIPF a very influential brand in greater Toronto area and even in the world. TIPF has become a world-renowned international event and has attracted extensive global attention. Toronto International Photography Festival can not only help award-winning photography talents to develop rapidly, but also bring infinite opportunities to the vast number of sponsors. The president of Trump group, the title sponsor of the first photography festival, was lucky and miraculously became the president of the United States. This myth has become a household classic story. At the same time, we sincerely thank many sponsors for their consistent support and good cooperation to IPF.

This Toronto International Photography Festival was held on December 8 at the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto, Canada. At that time, 320 people from Canada's three-level government, China's top officials in Canada, famous artists in photography industry, representatives of various photography institutions, sponsors, media attended the ceremony, will gather together to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the establishment of IPF, and witness and appreciate the artistic achievements of this photography ceremony. Welcome you to join us. We will provide the splendid connotation, precious and rare scenes and honors for the wonderful demands of our sponsors.
